

Youth Championship this Saturday, May 22nd

Flag Games:
12pm-1pm on Field #4

Modified Contact Games:
1pm - 2pm on Field #4

Middle School Matches:
1pm-4pm on Field #1

The Rugby Ohio youth programs will host its statewide spring season playoffs this Saturday, May 22 just outside of Fortress Obetz Stadium in Obetz, OH!

Food Truck - Swenson's food truck will be available for guests to order food and drinks throughout the event.

Youth Flag & Modified Contact (Field #4, 12pm-2pm)

We have a general outline of how these matches will run, but ultimately it will come down to numbers. Either way, we will make it a fun and safe experience for the kids! Also, you can stick around and watch some middle school games, this will give you and your kids an idea for the progression of the game.

Middle School (Field #1, 1pm-4pm)

There will be a competitive double elimination contest between the boys and girls A sides and some social matches for the B sides. Each team will play a minimum of 2 matches.

Gear Up!

Adult and children-sized championship apparel will be available for purchase.

Summer Programming

We will have additional rugby programs available across central Ohio this summer. More information will be coming out soon!

Spotlight your Team at States!

Do you know of a graduating senior, player, or staff member whose talents should be showcased? Then share their photo and a brief message on the Fortress Obetz Stadium video screen and scoreboards during both Championship weekends. Our players have adapted to a new kind of normal this year and their achievements should be recognized.

Share a photo, their first and last name, team name, and a brief message up to 250 characters. Your message will be shown on a continuous loop on Saturday, May 29 & June 5 and be featured in the digital program.

Space is limited but submissions have been extended for a short period of time.
